It is your responsibility to get a new confirmation number for any changes. If for any reason you are not able to pick up your pet(s) on the date you specify you must notify us within at least 24 hours. Payment for accrued charges and balance of stay must be made at this time and will be charged to the credit card on file unless your provide a different means of payment. Every possible accommodation will be made to board your pet through the new date you give us or if that is not possible, we will assist you in arranging for a transfer to a different boarding facility. If you do not pick up your pet(s) and do not notify us of your change of plans your pet(s) will be considered abandoned and we will follow the guidelines set forth in the California Code 1834.5 regarding the disposition of abandoned pets which is printed below. This action shall in no way relieve you from the responsibility of charges incurred; including charges during the waiting period set forth in the afore mentioned code. You will also be responsible for any fees incurred in the collection of these charges.

1834.5 Abandoned animal; disposition; notice:

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, when ever any animal is delivered to any veterinarian, dog kennel, cat kennel, pet-grooming parlor, animal hospital, or any other animal care facility pursuant to any written or oral agreement entered into after the effective date of this section, and the owner of such animal does not pick up the animal within 14 calendar das after the day the animal was due to be picked up, the animal shall be deemed abandoned. The person into whose custody the animal was placed for care shall first try for a period of not less than 10 days to find a new owner for the animal, and if unable to place the animal with a new owner, shall thereafter humanely destroy the animal so abandoned. If an animal so abandoned was left with a veterinarian or with a facility which has a veterinarian, and a new owner cannot be found pursuant to this section, such veterinarian shall humanely destroy the animal.
